REVIEW LESSON.

The words in the Lessons may be explained by means of simple sentences like the following : —

which	egg
such	chop
much	wall
quick	what
snuff	smith
grass	thrush
rich	thrill

What is a smith? You can chop with an axe. The thrush sits on the wall. An egg lies in the grass. There is much to do to-day. He is not such a boy as I like. Which one will you take?

I think it will be warm to-day. The fowls are in the yard. This shawl is not mine. Whose is it?
 It is yours. The girl has black eyes. A sharp stick.
 There is salt in this dish.
 My heart beats fast.
 Leaves die and fall from the trees.

A full cup. A glad heart.

I wear my cap on my head.

I put my shoes on my feet.

My nose forms part of my face.

My eyes are above my nose.

My ears are one on each side of my head.

My hands are at the ends of my arms.

I can walk, skip, and jump.

I can eat, drink, and sleep.

I can hear, see, taste, smell, and feel.

I can bear cold and heat.

 We are about done. He spoke aloud. The canal is full of water Can I dispel your fears? They mean to expel him from the school.
 I regret to hear it. He lives in a hotel. A hard blow will impel the ball a long way. We will omit the last verse. He said he would remit the money by post. I had to submit. I will wait until I hear from you.
